

Not all organizations are alike...

The Classical Association of the Middle West and South is an organization of university, college, secondary, and elementary teachers of Latin, Greek and all other studies which focus on the world of classical antiquity. CAMWS, founded in 1905 at the University of Chicago, is the largest of the regional classical organizations. The territory extends east as far as Ohio, south from Virginia, west to Utah and Arizona and north into the Canadian provinces of Ontario, Manitoba, and Saskatchewan.

AWARDS AND SCHOLARSHIPS

Summer Study Abroad

(Elementary and secondary teachers and graduate students)

- Mary A. Grant Award for study at the American Academy in Rome
- Semple Award for study at the American School of Classical Studies in Athens
- Janice and Herbert Benario Award for travel in Italy or Greece

Education and Travel Awards

- Manson A. Stewart Scholarships for teachers who are seeking certification in Latin or teachers who are attending their first CAMWS meeting and/or who could not otherwise attend

Teaching Awards

- Kraft and CAMWS Teaching Awards for excellence in the teaching of Latin at the K-12

and collegiate levels

College Awards

- Manson A. Stewart Scholarships for undergraduate students majoring in Classics at a college or university in CAMWS territory

School Awards

- Cash and book awards for high school students who excel on a competitive Latin translation exam

Outstanding Publication Award

- Recognizes a distinguished first book published by a CAMWS member during the past four years

Special Service Award

- Recognizes a classicist or non-classicist in CAMWS territory who has made a special contribution to classical studies

PUBLICATIONS

Membership includes subscriptions to

- The Classical Journal (quarterly), a unique mixture of pedagogy and current scholarship
- CAMWS Newsletter, a timely summary of what is going on in the field, including notices of scholarships, opportunities for study, meetings, and funding sources

CONFERENCES

- The annual meeting each spring and biennial section

meeting in the fall provide forums for scholarly and pedagogical papers (with a prize for best paper by a graduate student), workshops and special events, all of which make it their highest goal to bring together students and teachers at all levels in a friendly atmosphere.

SERVICES AND SUPPORT

- Committee for the Promotion of Latin promotes the study of Latin by providing funding for a variety of promotional activities (with a prize for the best project each year), by offering support to existing Latin programs, and by helping to create new ones.
- The CPL Website features free promotional materials and other useful information, plus links to other sites.
- CPL also publishes CPL Online, a peer-reviewed electronic journal on all facets of Latin teaching.

CAMWS OFFICE

Anne H. Groton
 Secretary-Treasurer, CAMWS
 Department of Classics
 St. Olaf College
 1520 St. Olaf Ave.
 Northfield, MN 55057-1098
 Telephone: 507-646-3387
 FAX: 507-646-3732
 E-mail: groton@stolaf.edu
 Website: www.camws.org
 CPL Website: www.camwscpl.org